ON THE GO TRAVEL

ITINERARY

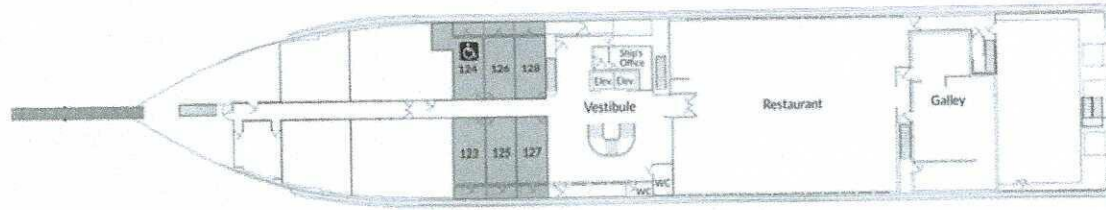

FRIDAY - SATURDAY
NOV 27-DEC 5, 2026

- DAY 1 Depart for the Atlanta Airport. Enjoy your flight from Atlanta, GA to New Orleans, LA (Central Time Zone). A motor coach will be waiting to transfer you to your hotel. Enjoy the evening at your leisure. Dinner will be on your own.
Overnight at The InterContinental New Orleans
- DAY 2 After breakfast, your motor coach will take you to the boarding dock and all luggage will be delivered from your hotel to your stateroom so you can relax and soak up the excitement of your voyage! Enjoy a Welcome Aboard Reception once onboard the American Melody with cocktails, hors d'oeuvres and entertainment. As the ship elegantly cruises along the river, engage in the dynamic array of onboard entertainment. Each moment is designed to enhance your experience, promising a journey filled with delightful encounters and memorable entertainment. Enjoy the day to relax while cruising the Mississippi.
Breakfast at the Hotel, Meals on the Ship
- DAY 3 Today you will cruise to Oak Alley, LA. This iconic Southern estate is renowned for its oak-lined avenue, stretching majestically towards the Mississippi River. Built in the early 19th century, this Greek Revival mansion exudes charm with its grand architecture and lush gardens. Be transported back in time as you explore the meticulously preserved interiors and learn about the land's history, including its role in the sugar industry.
Meals on the Ship
- DAY 4 Cruise to St. Francisville, LA. This picturesque town traces its origins to the early 19th century, a time when it flourished under Spanish rule in West Florida before American settlers claimed it, weaving it into the fabric of the United States. St. Francisville invites you to wander through its history, whether you prefer to venture alone or join one of many engaging guided tours.
Meals on the Ship
- DAY 5 Welcome to Natchez, MS. Nestled along the Lower Mississippi River, this town is a treasure trove of history and architectural wonders. Founded in 1716, it bears the imprint of its French origins, evident in landmarks like Fort Rosalie, a testament to its colonial past. The town flourished during the antebellum era, with affluent planters erecting grand mansions such as Stanton Hall and Longwood, showcasing their wealth and influence.
Meals on the Ship.
- DAY 6 Cruise into one of the most historically significant cities along the Mississippi River today. Vicksburg resonates with Civil War history, where its control marked a pivotal turning point in the conflict. Dubbed the "Gibraltar of the West," its fortified position linking river and rail was crucial to Union strategy. Explore the National Military Park battlefield on a narrated tour that brings this powerful story to life. President Abraham Lincoln emphasized its importance, declaring Vicksburg the key to closing the war.
Meals on the Ship.
- DAY 7 Today you will arrive in Cleveland, MS, also known as the "City of Hospitality." Its history is deeply intertwined with agriculture, particularly cotton farming, reflected in the historic downtown where remnants of the city's cotton trading past still remain. Cleveland is also celebrated for its contributions to American music. As part of the Mississippi Blues Trail, legendary musicians such as B.B. King, Muddy Waters, and Robert Johnson have left their mark on the region.
Meals on the Ship.
- DAY 8 Get ready to feel the vibrant soul as you cruise to Memphis, Tennessee. This historic gem boasts a skyline that dances along the river, lined by sprawling oak trees and historic landmarks honoring its storied past. Feel the rhythm of the city through legendary Beale Street, alive with the sounds of blues and jazz. Explore Graceland, the iconic home of Elvis Presley, and immerse yourself in the legacy of the King of Rock 'n' Roll. While you're here, don't miss out on the mouthwatering BBQ this city is known for.
Meals on the Ship.
- DAY 9 Cherish your final breakfast on board before disembarking the ship. A motor coach will pick you up and take you to Graceland for the Elvis Experience Tour featuring the audio-guided Graceland Mansion tour, Elvis' custom jets, and full access to Elvis Presley's Memphis museums and exhibits. A lunch voucher is included while here. After lunch, bid farewell and be sent on your way for your flight from Memphis, TN to Atlanta, GA.
Breakfast on the Ship, Lunch Voucher at Graceland.
