

Christmas in Branson, Missouri

November 16-21, 2026; 6 days and 5 nights

Branson is still one of the premier spots in the country to enjoy fantastic holiday shows. It's also home to great site-seeing in the Ozarks, wonderful food, 2 lovely lakes, great shopping, and so much more. Along the way we'll see some great sights too! We'll enjoy 3 nights in Branson, as well as one night in Sikeston, Missouri on the way there, and one night below Memphis in Mississippi. Our trip this year features the following highlights:

- Lunch at Lambert's Restaurant, home of the 'throwed rolls'. It's a fun stop and awesome food.
- Visit to beautiful Branson Landing, where you can enjoy some free time and shopping too. This waterfront shopping and dining spot is located on pretty Lake Taneycomo. There's so much to do here!
- A visit to College of the Ozarks for a really interesting and inspiring student lead tour. It's beautiful here!
- Visit to historic downtown Branson, where you can visit the old timey 5 and Dime Store.
- Dinner cruise on the Showboat Branson Belle on pretty Table Rock Lake. You'll enjoy a delicious dinner as you cruise the scenic lake. It features great holiday entertainment with all your favorite Christmas tunes!
- Five amazing shows while in town: (current, as of printing)
- The Miracle of Christmas Show at the gorgeous Sight and Sound Theater. This show is truly one of the most amazing productions with dozens in the cast, live nativity animals, professional lighting and sound. It's the very best show in Branson right now and is not to be missed.
